PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

FOR INFORMATION ON PROCEDURAL RULES IN JUSTICE COURTS, PLEASE CONSULT PART V OF "THE TEXAS RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE," WHICH IS AVAILABLE ONLINE, AND IN THIS COURT. THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS FURNISHED TO YOU AS A COURTESY. NEITHER I, NOR MY CLERK CAN ADVISE YOU WHAT YOU SHOULD DO AND ARE BARRED BY LAW FROM GIVING YOU LEGAL ADVICE. WE CAN ONLY ANSWER PROCEDURAL QUESTIONS. PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THE STATEMENT OF CLAIM.

1. SMALL CLAIMS CASE: A small claims case is a lawsuit brought for the recovery of money, damages, civil penalties, personal property, or other relief allowed by law. The claim can be for no more than $20,000, excluding attorney fees, if any.

2. DEBT CLAIM CASE: A debt claim case is a lawsuit brought to recover a debt by an assignee of a claim, a debt collector or collection agency, a financial institution, or a person or entity primarily engaged in the business of lending money at interest. The claim can be for no more than $20,000, excluding statutory interest and court costs but including attorney fees, if any.

Please determine which of the above case type is the correct one. Complete the appropriate petition packet. PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY! You are the plaintiff and the person or entity you are suing is the defendant. The defendant has the right to be sued in the county and precinct where they reside; there are exceptions to this rule. Should there be a motion by the defendant to transfer venue, a hearing will be set to determine if a transfer will be granted; a motion to transfer venue may delay the proceedings six to eight weeks.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY AS PLAINTIFF TO DETERMINE THE LEGAL CAPACITY IN WHICH YOU WILL SUE THE DEFENDANT. It is important that you understand that for any potential judgment you may receive to be valid, it is necessary for you to sue the defendant in their proper legal capacity, of which there are typically three:

- A. PERSONALLY: Where an individual is responsible to you for damages he may have caused you as an individual.
- B. PROPRIETOR OR PARTNERSHIP: A business that is not incorporated but does have on file with the County Clerk an assumed name. Example: John Smith d/b/a Greenhouse Supplies.
- C. CORPORATION: The business which has allegedly caused you damage is incorporated and therefore it is necessary to know the individual's name who is authorized to accept service on behalf of the corporation. The authorized agent for service would be listed with the Secretary of State whose phone number is 1-800-252-5555 web address is www.sos.state.tx.us. Example: Greenhouse, Inc. through its agent, John Smith. It is also possible for an incorporated entity to have an assumed name. Example: Greenhouse, Inc. d/b/a Greenhouse Supplies.

After the appropriate packet is completed submit it to the clerk for processing. You will then be required to pay the fees for filing the claim, $46.00 and service of citation, if you choose to use the Constable's Service in Stephens County, in the amount of $80.00 for one individual or entity. Each additional person or entity to be served will be an additional $80.00 provided all parties to be served are located in Stephens County. A citation along with a copy of your statement will be served to the defendant(s) by the Constable or Sheriff's deputy notifying them that a suit has been filed against them in this court. The citation will order the defendant(s) to appear in this court to answer to the suit within 14 days of service of citation. The defendant(s) is required to send a copy of their answer to you as plaintiff and one of the following will take place:

- A. The defendant has entered a denial and the case is set for trial. The trial notice will be mailed approximately 45 days prior to the trial date, or
- B. The defendant did not answer and a prove-up hearing needs to be set for you to present facts to the court as to why you should be granted a default judgment.
- C. The defendant answered and acknowledged his indebtedness. An acknowledged judgment is prepared and mailed to both parties.

If you should receive a judgment, please understand that this court does not collect the judgment for you, nor can we force the defendant to pay the judgment. It is your responsibility to request any post-judgment remedies. Following are some of those remedies that are available to you:

- A. Abstract of Judgment places a lien on any real property the defendant may own in a particular county where the abstract is recorded. There is a fee of $5.00 for the court to issue the abstract. You will also be required to pay a small fee to the County Clerk to record the abstract. This may be obtained 21 days after the judgment was signed.
- B. Writ of Execution authorizes the Constable or Sheriff to seize any assets belonging to the defendant that are not exempt under Texas Property Code, 42.001 and 42.002. Those assets are then auctioned at a public sale and those proceeds are applied to the judgment. This may be obtained thirty (30) days after the judgment was signed.
- C. Writ of Garnishment is a separate suit wherein you are the plaintiff and the defendant's bank is the defendant. You are actually suing the bank in which the original defendant has his bank account, warning the bank to freeze the monetary assets of his bank account and to appear and make answer to the garnishment suit. Extreme caution should be used when filing a garnishment suit. If there are not sufficient funds in the account at the time the garnishment is served, the person filing the suit is liable for reasonable attorney fees of the garnishee, which he may then tax as additional court costs against the judgment debtor. An attorney MAY BE required.

DEBT CLAIM

DEBT CLAIM CASE: A debt claim case is a lawsuit brought to recover a debt by an assignee of a claim, a debt collector or collection agency, a financial institution, or a person or entity primarily engaged in the business of lending money at interest. The claim can be for no more than $20,000, excluding statutory interest and court costs but including attorney fees, if any.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: APPROPRIATE COURTROOM ATTIRE IS REQUIRED. All persons entering the courtroom should be dressed in clothing reasonable befitting the dignity and solemnity of the court proceedings. No shorts, tank tops, flip flops, hats, etc. Cell phones and other electronics must be turned off when in the courtroom. Food and drink is not allowed in the courtroom.
